AGENT FOR

J. W. VAN HORN & BRO.,

Manufacturers of Hardwood Lumber,

NINTH AVENUE, 14th and 15th Sts., Sept 10th 1877.

Mr Labin Guism

Dear Sir

In regard to your Locus Timber I am free to confess that you have been treated Badly about it and I have done my best to get the matter settled for you of course you understand that I was acting for other Parties when I contracted it and that Mr Brown was the Party who was to do the Paying, and J W Van Horn was the Party who furnished the money. Now Mr Brown has been absent most all the time since the Locus was got out. and Mr Van Horn know nothing about what to do with it. Is the reason that you were put off so long. and now there is some trouble with the Money matters which will take until the latter part of this month to arrange and then I think without doubt I can get them to send you your money. But if in the mean time you get an opportunity to sell to any other Parties and can get your money of them do not hesitate to do so as we will not think hard. But if you do not get that chance you shall have your Money. Before very long

Yours
E. G.
