Mr Laban Quinn
My dear Sir

I write to ask you to aid me in the way of a little Money on the account of your sons.
I am in a hard place at this time and am compelled to raise some Money in a very short time. I have tried every way to be as easy on the Boys as I could and have waited over three years for them to pay off their account, & I cannot wait any longer. I would not put the note out for collection as I did not want to trouble you any more than I could help. But now I am forced to do something or I will be sued myself. Now if you can pay me one hundred dollars, in a few days you will do me a great favor and save me a great deal of trouble, for if they sue me I will be forced to sue others, they have given me 10 days to raise the Money, & I do hope that you will come to my aid. I am your friend Jas T. McCrory
