Dear Sir:

I have talked with Mr. Delon in regard to trial of the Bowers case at next term, and he says unless there is some money put up, he will not have any thing more to do with it, and we are of the same opinion. If you people want that case tried again, you will have to put up $200.⁰⁰ to pay Atty's fees, ie $100.⁰⁰ to Delon & Muckolls, and same amount to our firm. It takes a week to try the case, and it takes up time from other business, that will pay either of us more money than that, and all hands have decided not to try & get the case fixed for trial until the money is paid over or secured to be paid by Court. Please let us hear from you at once and and if fees are arranged, will then try and get ready for trial, at next term. Yours truly
Payne & Hamilton
